The Monthly Newsletter of the Sayreville Board of Education

Volume 23, Issue 7

April 2017

The Sayreville Board of Education congratulates the following students and staff who are at the

Head of the Class

EISENHOWER ELEMENTARY STUDENTS MRS. EDITH BRAUN

On February 10th and 16th, Eisenhower Elementary School students participated in the 9th annual Jump Rope for Heart program that supports the American Heart Association (AHA). The students raised just over $8,000. In addition, Mrs. Braun asked that everyone wear red on February 3rd, in support of Go Red for Women which is also in support of the AHA. The staff collected $247.00 to donate to Go Red for Women.

TRUMAN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Truman Elementary School had their Parent Family Night, Power Up Your Learning on February 23rd. Nearly 400 students and parents attended. There were stations and activities supervised by Truman teachers, paraprofessionals and our high school students from the Tomorrow's Teachers program. The activities focused on language arts, math, STEM, art and character education ideas. Truman has more activities planned for the rest of the school year.

PHILIP GROCHOWSKI STEPHANIE GONZALEZ

Philip Grochowski and Stephanie Gonzalez, Independent Study Ceramics students, have had their ceramic works chosen from a nationwide competition sponsored by Skutt Ceramics called Peep Show. Only 20 works are selected and now, Philip's and Stephanie's works will be on display at the National Art Education Association conference in NYC at the end of March.

JENNA AHMED BRENDA CAMBERO SUMMER WUCHTER PIERRE MacPHERSON

Four Advanced Art/Independent Study students have also received recognition for their endeavors. Jenna Ahmed received an Honorable Mention, Brenda Cambero and Summer Wuchter have received Silver Keys, and Pierre Macpherson received a Gold Key. As Pierre received a Gold Key, his tunnel book will be exhibited at the Montclair Art Museum. Pierre, Brenda and Summer will have their works displayed in a slide presentation during the museum's opening reception.

JENNA AHMED RACHEL CHANOVICH PIERRE MacPHERSON EMILY SHERNIUS SUMMER WUCHTER

Congratulations to the above students who are included in an exhibition at the Sally D. Francisco Art Gallery in Layton, NJ. A job well done!

SAMSEL UPPER ELEMENTARY SCHOOL "LET THE CHILDREN LEAD"

Congratulations and many thanks to the Samsel Upper Elementary School students who participated in the "Let the Children Lead" event last month. These students studied the role of the Sayreville Board of Education and then led the entire meeting on Tuesday, March 21, 2017. You can view the outcome of this unique event on the district's website. Great job to the Samsel students!

CAST AND CREW OF "KISS ME KATE" DR. MICHAEL PICCUIRRO

Congratulations to the cast and Crew of "Kiss Me Kate" and their advisor Dr. Michael Piccuiro for an excellent and enjoyable spring musical.

Enjoy an entertaining, humorous and informative program!

Sayreville War Memorial High School Athletics is inviting you to spend an evening with recruitment guru Jack Renkens as he explodes the myths and presents the realities of college recruiting!

Myth #1

The time to gear up your recruiting effort is late in the junior year.

Reality

The best time to start is freshman year! (It's true!)

Myth #2

Only the top athletes can expect to get opportunities

Reality

The are great schools all over the country looking for good athletes, good students, and good kids right now!

If your son or daughter truly has aspirations to play at the college level, this is a "can't miss" event!
